The journey from a struggling student activist to State secretary was not a path of Roses.

Born in a Hindu Brahmin family at Sundargarh amidst forest, mountains and tribal infested locality, he has completed childhood study in the native village and higher education in the district headquarters. Since childhood days, he was much involved in literary and organisational structuring, which enhanced his leadership attributes.

A school going student after getting motivated to serve the nation joined the Akhil Bharat Vidyarthi Parishad. Served people during the time of flood and drought in different parts of Odisha. After playing a great role to serve the people, The ABVP appointed him as the Joint Secretary of Odisha. Motivated many youths and students towards serving the nation. After seeing his great organizational quality BJP, The largest political party of the world, gave him an organisational work in its youth wing. Then he became State executive member of BJYM and State General Secretary of BJYM Odisha. His organizational capabilities were excellent and again the party appointed him as State General secretary of BJYM Odisha and then appointed him as State President of BJYM Odisha, the largest youth organisation. Now he is serving as State secretary of BJP Odisha. His work and dedication towards nation building is highly exemplary. He is the key person in western part of Odisha, especially in the Sundergarh, Sambalpur, Jharsuguda, Bargarh District to coordinate and implement the Garib Kalyan Yojanas to door step of the people. Also worked to set up and maintain a Nation Building voter database. Trained party members and volunteers on canvassing and organizing best practices. He has also attended many trainings/ workshops inside and outside India. He was a part of the delegation team led by Sri Siddharth Nath Singh and visited China for building up bilateral relations between the two countries as discussed by Mr Xing Ping, the President of Republic of China and Honourable Prime Minister of India Sri Narendra Modi in 2014.

- Awarded and honoured by many social organisations for the philanthropic work, he does round the clock. A disciplinarian and dedicated person, who always work within the prescribed boundaries and thinks out of box.
